Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Extraordinary Scene in an Australian Theatre.

Miska Hauser, the violinist, thus describes an exciting scene which he recently witnessed in Melbourne, Australia:

The curtin rose. A French dancer, an elegant, supple young lady, of no great beauty, but much expression, and apparently on perfectly good terms with herself, appeared in the scene in her short lace dress, received by an outburst of applause, and by the martial trumpets of the orchestra. But from the other side came a youthful, blooming, Spanish creole, with beautiful eyes, large and soft; her complexion rosy, her figure tall; in fact, the impersonation of Terpsichore. She bowed modestly—it was her first appearance at Melbourne—and the enthusiasm of the public, surprised by her beauty, manifested itself in vehement cheers.

The two dancers struggled for the palm of victory in a graceful Tarentula. Like two glittering butterflies they whirled around, accompanied by music and applause. The mercurial Parisian made use of her most seductive wiles, of her most refined pirouttes, of her most enchanting attitudes, but the creole seemed patronized by the Graces themselves. Thundering applause encouraged her; and as often as she came forward with her graceful modesty, nosegays, rings and bracelets were thrown at her feet. The French lady struggled with her last strength against the triumph of her rival, until, disheartened and exhausted, she fell to the ground.

The creole approached her with compassion to raise her, when suddenly the Parisian darted up, and with looks full of hate and fury, boxed the ears of her rival. The audience hissed and hooted, while she exclaimed, with much passion: "The wretch tripped me!" The poor creole declared with dignity that she was innocent of the meanness; but a vulgar word which slipped out of the lips of the French dancer against her, suddenly aroused all the passions of the south in her bosom, and a singular struggle began. The two excited ladies rushed upon each other, and wrestled, and tore and pulled one another's hair, while the thunders of the gallery made the whole atmosphere vibrate.

I never saw a more natural performance. The better class of the public did not interfere, but seemed rather to be amused by these Olympic exercises, until the creole, bleeding and fainting, was carried away from the scene. Some officers, who, from a box, had witnessed the spectacle, were revolted at the conduct of the Parisian, and sent for the police to arrest her, but her friends collected and resisted the constables. A riot ensued; a portion of the public rushed on the stage; they jumped across the orchestra; the fiddles and bass viols were broken; the ladies were fainting; children crying; and I took to my heels with my fiddle and ran away, without stopping u til I reached my hotel.

THE LAMENTABLE DEATH OF LYMAN PERSONS.—Lyman Persons, aged nine years, son of Mrs. F. A. Persons, who resides on Biddle street, between Van Buren and Cass, met with an accident Saturday afternoon which resulted in his death. It appears that he had a quantity of gunpowder in his pantaloons pocket, together with a number of friction matches; by some means or other the matches were ignited and the powder exploded, burning the region of his stomach and bowels terribly. The moment that the accident took place he called to a colored man in the employ of Dr. Tracy, that he was on fire. The men saw the flame burst through the boy's pants and he immediately came to his assistance, pulling away the clothing and doing all in his power to extinguish the fire. A lady who was passing then came up and threw her shawl about him, and young Persons in this condition ran home. Doctors Wolcott and McKnight were immediately called in, and they did all in their power to alleviate his sufferings, but he died Sunday at 12 o'clock.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

TALKING RIGHT OUT.—The Commonwealth, (Frankfort, Ky.,) after avowing its editor's individual belief that any state that will has a right to secede from the Union, goes on to say that—

"If the people of South Carolina, Alabama or Georgia desire to secede from the Union, in the name of the constitution let them do so. Let them form a republic, an empire, or anything else they may fancy. Let them enclose themselves within a Chinese wall if they want to, and here is one who will contribute his mite toward furnishing the requisite rocks. Let them do what they please. Let them do it as they please, and when they please, with one solitary condition, namely, that their separation be final. Their absence would be an incalculable and invaluable relief to the balance of the people of the United States. We should escape large quantities of quadrennial gas, and noise, and confusion, and stuff.

"At every presidential election these political fillibusters remind us of the poor Frenchman who locked himself in a room with a rich ditto, and threatened to blow out his own brains and charge him with the murder unless the latter gave him then and there five hundred dollars. Every four years these southern Quixotes swell up with bad whiskey and worse logic, and tell the balance of the people if they don't do so and so, that they—the Quixotes—will secede. Let them secede and be—blessed.—We are tired of their gasconade, their terrific threats and their bloody prophecies. They were never calculated for any higher destiny than that of frightening old women and young children. They have been revived and repeated until—to use an expressive vulgarism—they are played out. Their bombast is absolutely sickening."

LEAVENWORTH, Oct. 30.

The Times has information from southern Kansas that sixty dragoons under Capt. Sturgis, accompanied by Indian Agent Cowan, had been driving the settlers from what is known as the Cherokee neutral lands. The Times correspondent states that seventy-four houses had been burned, and the occupants turned out. Much excitement prevailed in southern Kansas, but it is thought the statements are greatly exaggerated.

A meeting of citizens of this county was held last evening to devise plans for the general relief of sufferers in the territory. A committee was appointed to solicit immediate aid from the east. A committee was also appointed to act in concert with other counties in the matter. A call has been issued for a conference at Lawrence on the 14th of November.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.
Grand Display of French Millinery, &c.
MISS SHEEHAN & CO.,

WOULD respectfully announce to the ladies of Janesville and vicinity that she will open, for inspection, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May the 17th, 18th and 19th, 1860, a choice and select assortment of

MILLINERY GOODS, &C.

The stock embraces everything that is new, novel and fashionable in the market, such as Ribbons, Ruches, French and American Flowers in every color, style and price, Ladies Dress Caps, in endless variety. Misses' Bonnets, Flats and Riding Hats, all prices, in fact every article which constitutes a First Class Millinery Establishment may be found here, all of which I will sell at very low prices, being enabled to do so from the fact that I buy my goods for cash from the best houses, both in New York and Chicago.

Miss Sheehan & Co. feel confident, from the long experience in the business in all its various branches which we have had, together with every facility for buying, that she cannot fail to suit the most fastidious, both in style, durability, elegance and cheapness.

Ladies in want of a fashionable Bonnet will find it to their interest to give us a call before buying elsewhere.
Respectfully submitted,
MISS SHEEHAN & CO.
Janesville, May 8th, 1860.

N. B.—Old bonnets cleaned, bleached, pressed and made to look as good as new on short notice.

Dresses cut and made to order, one door north McKey & Bro.'s, up stairs. may9dawtf

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
AND
BUILDERS.
Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach the formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone
of every description,
PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN
of any required dimension.
Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured; it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER $1,000,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

THESE popular BITTERS possess all the nourishing and invigorating properties of PURE OLD BOURBON WHISKEY, and are considered the most efficacious TONIC and STIMULANT, as well as the most agreeable STOMACHIC ever offered to the public. As a Tonic for Old People, delicate Ladies, convalescent invalids, and all weakly people, they cannot be surpassed; in all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong healthy tone to the system. A trial will establish their merits over all other Tonics now in use. For LUNG COMPLAINTS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DISEASES AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, they are an invaluable Remedy; and are a certain preventative of CHILLS AND FEVERS.

Put up in Quart Bottles, in cases of one and two dozen, and for sale by Druggists and Grocers everywhere.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Extraordinary Scene in an Australian Theatre.

Miska Hauser, the violinist, thus describes an exciting scene which he recently witnessed in Melbourne, Australia:

The curtin rose. A French dancer, an elegant, supple young lady, of no great beauty, but much expression, and apparently on perfectly good terms with herself, appeared in the scene in her short lace dress, received by an outburst of applause, and by the martial trumpets of the orchestra. But from the other side came a youthful, blooming, Spanish creole, with beautiful eyes, large and soft; her complexion rosy, her figure tall; in fact, the impersonation of Terpsichore. She bowed modestly—it was her first appearance at Melbourne—and the enthusiasm of the public, surprised by her beauty, manifested itself in vehement cheers.

The two dancers struggled for the palm of victory in a graceful Tarentula. Like two glittering butterflies they whirled around, accompanied by music and applause. The mercurial Parisian made use of her most seductive wiles, of her most refined pirouttes, of her most enchanting attitudes, but the creole seemed patronized by the Graces themselves. Thundering applause encouraged her; and as often as she came forward with her graceful modesty, nosegays, rings and bracelets were thrown at her feet. The French lady struggled with her last strength against the triumph of her rival, until, disheartened and exhausted, she fell to the ground.

The creole approached her with compassion to raise her, when suddenly the Parisian darted up, and with looks full of hate and fury, boxed the ears of her rival. The audience hissed and hooted, while she exclaimed, with much passion: "The wretch tripped me!" The poor creole declared with dignity that she was innocent of the meanness; but a vulgar word which slipped out of the lips of the French dancer against her, suddenly aroused all the passions of the south in her bosom, and a singular struggle began. The two excited ladies rushed upon each other, and wrestled, and tore and pulled one another's hair, while the thunders of the gallery made the whole atmosphere vibrate.

I never saw a more natural performance. The better class of the public did not interfere, but seemed rather to be amused by these Olympic exercises, until the creole, bleeding and fainting, was carried away from the scene. Some officers, who, from a box, had witnessed the spectacle, were revolted at the conduct of the Parisian, and sent for the police to arrest her, but her friends collected and resisted the constables. A riot ensued; a portion of the public rushed on the stage; they jumped across the orchestra; the fiddles and bass viols were broken; the ladies were fainting; children crying; and I took to my heels with my fiddle and ran away, without stopping until I reached my hotel.

THE LAMENTABLE DEATH OF LYMAN PERSONS.—Lyman Persons, aged nine years, son of Mrs. F. A. Persons, who resides on Biddle street, between Van Buren and Cass, met with an accident Saturday afternoon which resulted in his death. It appears that he had a quantity of gunpowder in his pantaloons pocket, together with a number of friction matches; by some means or other the matches were ignited and the powder exploded, burning the region of his stomach and bowels terribly. The moment that the accident took place he called to a colored man in the employ of Dr. Tracy, that he was on fire. The man saw the flame burst through the boy's pants and he immediately came to his assistance, pulling away the clothing and doing all in his power to extinguish the fire. A lady who was passing then came up and threw her shawl about him, and young Persons in this condition ran home. Doctors Wolcott and McKnight were immediately called in, and they did all in their power to alleviate his sufferings, but he died Sunday at 12 o'clock.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

TALKING RIGHT OUT.—The Commonwealth, (Frankfort, Ky.,) after avowing its editor's individual belief that any state that will has a right to secede from the Union, goes on to say that—

"If the people of South Carolina, Alabama or Georgia desire to secede from the Union, in the name of the constitution let them do so. Let them form a republic, an empire, or anything else they may fancy. Let them enclose themselves within a Chinese wall if they want to, and here is one who will contribute his mite toward furnishing the requisite rocks. Let them do what they please. Let them do it as they please, and when they please, with one solitary condition, namely, that their separation be final. Their absence would be an incalculable and invaluable relief to the balance of the people of the United States. We should escape large quantities of quadrennial gas, and noise, and confusion, and stuff.

"At every presidential election these political fillibusters remind us of the poor Frenchman who locked himself in a room with a rich ditto, and threatened to blow out his own brains and charge him with the murder unless the latter gave him then and there five hundred dollars. Every four years these southern Quixotes swell up with bad whiskey and worse logic, and tell the balance of the people if they don't do so and so, that they—the Quixotes—will secede. Let them secede and be—blessed.—We are tired of their gasconade, their terrific threats and their bloody prophecies. They were never calculated for any higher destiny than that of frightening old women and young children. They have been revived and repeated until—to use an expressive vulgarism—they are played out. Their bombast is absolutely sickening."

LEAVENWORTH, Oct. 30.

The Times has information from southern Kansas that sixty dragoons under Capt. Sturgis, accompanied by Indian Agent Cowan, had been driving the settlers from what is known as the Cherokee neutral lands. The Times correspondent states that seventy-four houses had been burned, and the occupants turned out. Much excitement prevailed in southern Kansas, but it is thought the statements are greatly exaggerated.

A meeting of citizens of this county was held last evening to devise plans for the general relief of sufferers in the territory. A committee was appointed to solicit immediate aid from the east. A committee was also appointed to act in concert with other counties in the matter. A call has been issued for a conference at Lawrence on the 14th of November.

Misses' Bonnets, Flats and Riding Hats, all prices, in fact every article which constitutes a First Class Millinery Establishment may be found here, all of which I will sell at very low prices, being enabled to do so from the fact tha I buy my goods for cash from the best houses, bot in New York and Chicago.

Miss Sheehan & Co. feel confident, from the long experience in the business in all its various branches which we have had, together with every facility for buying, that she cannot fail to suit the most fastidious, both in style, durability, elegance and cheapness.

Ladies in want of a fashionable Bonnet will find it to their interest to give us a call before buying elsewhere.
Respectfully submitted,
MISS SHEEHAN & CO.
Janesville, May 8th, 1860.

N. B.—Old bonnets cleaned, bleached, pressed and made to look as good as new on short notice.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
AND
BUILDERS.

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

QUARRY OF FREESTONE,

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

☞ All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

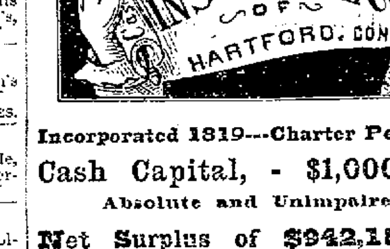

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER $1,000,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Extraordinary Scene in an Australian Theatre.

Miska Hauser, the violinist, thus describes an exciting scene which he recently witnessed in Melbourne, Australia:

The curtin rose. A French dancer, an elegant, supple young lady, of no great beauty, but much expression, and apparently on perfectly good terms with herself, appeared in the scene in her short lace dress, received by an outburst of applause, and by the martial trumpets of the orchestra. But from the other side came a youthful, blooming, Spanish creole, with beautiful eyes, large and soft; her complexion rosy, her figure tall; in fact, the impersonation of Terpsichore. She bowed modestly—it was her first appearance at Melbourne—and the enthusiasm of the public, surprised by her beauty, manifested itself in vehement cheers.

The two dancers struggled for the palm of victory in a graceful Tarentula. Like two glittering butterflies they whirled around, accompanied by music and applause. The mercurial Parisian made use of her most seductive wiles, of her most refined pirouttes, of her most enchanting altitudes, but the creole seemed patronized by the Graces themselves. Thundering applause encouraged her; and as often as she came forward with her graceful modesty, nosegays, rings and bracelets were thrown at her feet. The French lady struggled with her last strength against the triumph of her rival, until, disheartened and exhausted, she fell to the ground.

The creole approached her with compassion to raise her, when suddenly the Parisian darted up, and with looks full of hate and fury, boxed the ears of her rival. The audience hissed and hooted, while she exclaimed, with much passion: "The wretch tripped me!" The poor creole declared with dignity that she was innocent of the meanness; but a vulgar word which slipped out of the lips of the French dancer against her, suddenly aroused all the passions of the south in her bosom, and a singular struggle began. The two excited ladies rushed upon each other, and wrestled, and tore and pulled one another's hair, while the thunders of the gallery made the whole atmosphere vibrate.

I never saw a more natural performance. The better class of the public did not interfere, but seemed rather to be amused by these Olympic exercises, until the creole, bleeding and fainting, was carried away from the scene. Some officers, who, from a box, had witnessed the spectacle, were revolted at the conduct of the Parisian, and sent for the police to arrest her, but her friends collected and resisted the constables. A riot ensued; a portion of the public rushed on the stage; they jumped across the orchestra; the fiddles and bass viols were broken; the ladies were fainting; children crying; and I took to my heels with my fiddle and ran away, without stopping until I reached my hotel.

THE LAMENTABLE DEATH OF LYMAN PERSONS.—Lyman Persons, aged nine years, son of Mrs. F. A. Persons, who resides on Biddle street, between Van Buren and Cass, met with an accident Saturday afternoon which resulted in his death. It appears that he had a quantity of gunpowder in his pantaloons pocket, together with a number of friction matches; by some means or other the matches were ignited and the powder exploded, burning the region of his stomach and bowels terribly. The moment that the accident took place he called to a colored man in the employ of Dr. Tracy, that he was on fire. The man saw the flame burst through the boy's pants and he immediately came to his assistance, pulling away the clothing and doing all in his power to extinguish the fire. A lady who was passing then came up and threw her shawl about him, and young Persons in this condition ran home. Doctors Wolcott and McKnight were immediately called in, and they did all in their power to alleviate his sufferings, but he died Sunday at 12 o'clock.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

TALKING RIGHT OUT.—The Commonwealth, (Frankfort, Ky.,) after avowing its editor's individual belief that any state that will has a right to secede from the Union, goes on to say that—

"If the people of South Carolina, Alabama or Georgia desire to secede from the Union, in the name of the constitution let them do so. Let them form a republic, an empire, or anything else they may fancy. Let them enclose themselves within a Chinese wall if they want to, and here is one who will contribute his mite toward furnishing the requisite rocks. Let them do what they please. Let them do it as they please, and when they please, with one solitary condition, namely, that their separation be final. Their absence would be an incalculable and invaluable relief to the balance of the people of the United States. We should escape large quantities of quadrennial gas, and noise, and confusion, and stuff.

"At every presidential election these political fillibusters remind us of the poor Frenchman who locked himself in a room with a rich ditto, and threatened to blow out his own brains and charge him with the murder unless the latter gave him then and there five hundred dollars. Every four years these southern Quixotes swell up with bad whiskey and worse logic, and tell the balance of the people if they don't do so and so, that they—the Quixotes—will secede. Let them secede and be—blessed.—We are tired of their gasconade, their terrific threats and their bloody prophecies. They were never calculated for any higher destiny than that of frightening old women and young children. They have been revived and repeated until—to use an expressive vulgarism—they are played out. Their bombast is absolutely sickening."

LEAVENWORTH, Oct. 30.

The Times has information from southern Kansas that sixty dragoons under Capt. Sturgis, accompanied by Indian Agent Cowan, had been driving the settlers from what is known as the Cherokee neutral lands. The Times correspondent states that seventy-four houses had been burned, and the occupants turned out. Much excitement prevailed in southern Kansas, but it is thought the statements are greatly exaggerated.

A meeting of citizens of this county was held last evening to devise plans for the general relief of sufferers in the territory. A committee was appointed to solicit immediate aid from the east. A committee was also appointed to act in concert with other counties in the matter. A call has been issued for a conference at Lawrence on the 14th of November.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

Grand Display of French Millinery, &c.

MISS SHEEHAN & CO.,

WOULD respectfully announce to the ladies of Janesville and vicinity that she will open, for inspection, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May the 17th, 18th and 19th, 1860, a choice and select assortment of

MILLINERY GOODS, &C.

The stock embraces everything that is new, novel and fashionable in the market, such as as Ribbons, Ruches, French and American Flowers in every color, style and price. Ladies Dress Caps, in endless variety. Misses' Bonnets, Flats and Riding Hats, all prices, in fact every article which constitutes a First Class Millinery Establishment may be found here, all of which I will sell at very low prices, being enabled to do so from the fact that I buy my goods for cash from the best houses, but in New York and Chicago.

Miss Sheehan & Co. feel confident, from the long experience in the business in all its various branches which we have had, together with every facility for buying, that she cannot fail to suit the most fastidious, both in style, durability, elegance and cheapness.

Ladies in want of a fashionable Bonnet will find it to their interest to give us a call before buying elsewhere.

Respectfully submitted, MISS SHEEHAN & CO.

Janesville, May 8th, 1860.

N. B.—Old bonnets cleaned, bleached, pressed and made to look as good as new on short notice.

Dresses cut and made to order, one door north McKey & Bro.'s, up stairs. may9dawtf

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS.

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

QUARRY OF FREESTONE,

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

☞ All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

The Assemblyman Once More.

After a day's rest, the Democrat returns to Mr. Graham in a column and a half article. It reiterates all the charges we have disproved, but descends to some specifications it prudently omitted in its former article. Of Mr. Graham, it says:

"He has not been, even nominally, a resident of this city for the last three years. * * Among the pine logs in Minnesota where his place of business is, and where he has spent seven-eights of his time since his family has resided in this city. * * During his whole term of office [as school commissioner] he was not in the city three months. * * His business interests are in Minnesota—he but sojourns here."

To make short work of these statements, we pronounce each and every one a positive falsehood. Since the residence of Mr. Graham in this city, which dates back three years ago this fall, when he purchased the dwelling house where he now lives, instead of being in Minnesota seven-eights of his time, he has not been absent to exceed one-fourth of the time. And we repeat the declaration we have before made, that during these three years, Mr. Graham has passed more time in the city than Mr. Richardson. During the year he served as school commissioner, instead of not being in the city three months, as the Democrat alleges, Mr. Graham was not absent more than three months, and he was present at the commencement of each term of the schools, to aid in the important work of starting them. For six consecutive months of that year, he was not absent from the city all.

If these facts, which, if it were necessary, can be substantiated by dates, make Mr. Graham a mere "sojourner," and only a "nominal resident," we would like to know in what position Mr. Richardson is placed? Can he show as good a record, in this respect, as Mr. Graham? We ask candid men, not the habitual maligners who figure in the Democrat.

Whatever interest Mr. Graham may once have had in Minnesota, or however much time he may have devoted to them there, he has sold all his property in that state, and proposes hereafter to give his time and business exclusively to Janesville. Can the friends of Mr. Richardson say as much for him and his California interests?

The objections and charges made against Mr. Graham suggest a farther comparison between him him and his competitor for the suffrages of the people of this city. How do these two men really stand in relation to the interests of the city, as represented by their support of the city government? The assessment roll, which is a true indicator, makes Mr. Graham, in his own name, a tax-payer for city expenses to the amount of $42,91. He is also the owner of two acres on Milton avenue, assessed to Royal Wood in last year's assessment, which he purchased some time since from Mr. Wood, and on which the tax is $4,00. Mr. Richardson, with all his personal wealth, is not upon the personal tax-roll at all, and all we have been able to find of real estate assessed to him is two vacant lots on which the tax is $10,88. If he has more on the roll we will cheerfully state it. Tested by this standard, how utterly hypocritical and unjust are the accusations against Mr. Graham and inconsistent with the claims for Mr. Richardson as the only friend of the interests and business of the city. As a taxpayer in the state, it is not unlikely that a like disproportion would be found to exist.

The Democrat has the meanness to repeat its charge that Mr. Graham has written the notices which his old friends in New York have made concerning him since his nomination. This charge is of the same character as the accusation which has been industriously circulated that one of the editors of this paper had in a private conversation admitted that to be the case. The latter, in relation to ourselves, we know to be a malicious falsehood, and have not the least doubt the other is.

Great stress is laid by the Democrat upon the attention and time we have devoted to Mr. Graham. That paper has forced this course upon us. As soon as he was nominated he was assailed with a virulence and vindictiveness seldom visited upon any candidate. Not only was his personal character traduced, but his family was assailed.—From that time to this the warfare has been continued. The Democrat has devoted, and is devoting more effort to him than all its other candidates, from Douglas down to coroner. The streets are full of abuse and detraction of him, and private effort is unceasingly added to public labor. In the opposition to him, there is both a personal malignity that should be defeated in its gratification, and a political purpose which no republican should aid. These are the reasons why Mr. Graham has required a continual defence from us, and they are reasons not at all complimentary to those who have furnished them.

Washington on Slavery in the Territories.

We have heretofore shown that JEFFERSON was in favor prohibiting slavery in the territories. Below we give an extract from the celebrated letter of WASHINGTON to LA FAYETTE, in which he enunciates the same views which the republican party of this day adopt, and which it is pledged to carry out in the administration of the government, in relation to "our new territories." Washington says:

"I agree with you cordially in your views in regard to negro slavery. I have long considered it a most serious evil, both socially and politically, and I should rejoice in any feasible scheme to rid our states of such a burden. The congress of 1787 adopted an ordinance which prohibits the existence of involuntary servitude in our northwestern territory forever. I consider it a wise measure. It meets with the approval and assent of nearly every member from the state more immediately interested in slave labor. The prevailing opinion in VIRGINIA is against the spread of slavery in our new territories, and I TRUST WE SHALL HAVE A CONFEDERATION OF FREE STATES."

☞ The St. Paul Pioneer and Democrat says truly that the choice is between Lincoln and a Free Code and Breckinridge and a Slave Code. Who can hesitate which to choose?

☞ At every presidential election there is a howl set up from the south, and echoed from the doughfaces of the north, that the Union will be dissolved if the south cannot have its way. It is time to have this matter tested, and the best way to effect this object is to elect Lincoln. We will then see whether they will do what they threaten.

GIVE THEM A DOSE.—The southern democracy have treated Douglas and his popular sovereignty bantling very shabbily.—The best way to pay them is to treat them with a full dose of Lincoln and Hamlin, next Tuesday.

☞ The Memphis Daily Appeal says that rather than have disunion the city of Memphis can better pay $5,000,000, and even more.

☞ The Milwaukee News says, "Cheer up, fellow democrats." They can't do it, poor fellows, and it is cruel in the News to ask them. They do not believe in making merry at a funeral.

☞ The Rockford Register says that the republicans of Freeport, Ill., had a grand celebration on Thursday last of the result of the recent elections, and that a torch-light procession turned out 1344 torches, an almost incredible number for an impromtu local meeting.

THE GERMANS FOR LINCOLN.—The N. Y. Tribune says that Mr. Wm. M. Wermerskirch, superintendent of the Naturalization office of the republican committee, is briskly employed issuing papers. He has now on his roll 3000 names, over 90 per cent. of which are German—and all for LINCOLN. The Germans can't tolerate fusion.

Gov. Washington Hunt, who has been so anxious to restore peace and harmony to the country, has taken the best way to do it; he has retired from any participation in the campaign.

THE POPE PREPARING TO LEAVE ROME.—The Paris correspondent of the London Times says that the departure of the Pope's Nuncio from Paris was considered the forerunner of the Pope's quitting Rome. The same authority says that seldom has the spirit of hostility been so general in the church of France, and never has it been more boldly displayed. Pastoral circulars, allocutions and sermons denounce and all but implore divine vengeance on the invaders of the Papal states and, by implication, on the emperor. The whole prelacy is aroused from one end of the country to the other.

☞ Punch has a leading picture in which he is introducing the Prince of Wales to his pretty Miss Columbia, with the assurance that he don't get such a partner as her every day.

☞ Robert Chambers, a Scottish writer of distinction, and a member of a well known Edingurgh publishing house, is at present in Chicago.

John B. Gough receives $250 for each lecture given since his return. He has already acquired a property valued at upwards of $30,000.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

It is said that the Prince of Wales had his pocket picked twice while he was in New York—a fact that will favorably impress him with the freedom of our institutions.

We learn from Washington that the President has made a decision in the case of Gen. Harney, which will be promulgated through the department. Though he is regarded as having violated the orders of Lieut. Gen. Scott, he is, in consideration of distinguished military service, merely slightly officially censured. Gen. Harney has been at Washington some weeks, awaiting the executive determination.

Mrs. Lewis writes from Paris to the Home Journal an account of a visit she paid to Lamartine, in the conclusion of which the poet statesman's opinion of America and Americans is given without reserve, and it is anything but complimentary.—Lamartine says—"The Americans hate me because I am poor, and I return the compliment most cordially." The French poet is mistaken; Americans pity, but do not hate beggars.

Gen. Joe Lane, the "national democratic" candidate for vice-president is in New York.

HON. ALEX. H. STEPHENS.—The St. Louis Republican and the Chicago Times and Herald are trying to ridicule the announcement that Hon. Alex. H. Stephens, of Ga., has abandoned Douglas, having become satisfied of the folly of sticking to a sinking ship.

The St. Louis Bulletin, whiah first published the fact, however, reiterates its statement, and declares, as per authority, that Mr. Stephens, though a friend of Douglas, has determined to labor for the Breckinridge ticket at the south the rest of the campaign. There is good reason to believe that such is the fact.

GOOD CHEER.—The Albany Evening Journal states that the N. Y. state republican committee had a meeting on Friday last, and that the intelligence received from every county in the state was of the most cheering character. The state is not only deemed safe beyond all possible contingency, but the majority will exceed, in magnitude, the estimates and hopes of the most sanguine.

On Thursday last a lad named Heelan, aged ten years, fell from the fifth story of Whitman & Vasburgh's paper factory, thro' the hatchway to the ground floor, and severely hurt his head! A slight accident, urely.

Two Philadelphia banks have been victimised out of $1,700 by forged checks.

Some three millions of gold dollars, United States currency, are about to be coined, of larger size than the little ones now in circulation.

Mr. Renselear Smith, the engineer on the Mineral Point railroad, who met with the unfortunate accident which we announced on Monday last, died of his injuries at an early hour on Tuesday morning, at Warren.

In Madrid, Spain, recently, a daring æronaut, in attempting to ascend in a balloon, hanging by his feet, fell at a hight of half a mile, and was dashed to pieces.

A race is pending between the steamers Alida and Daniel Crew, on the Hudson, for one thousand dollars.

Every policeman in Albany was astonished on Thursday last, by the delivery of a ton of coal at his residence. No explanations were made, but it is suspected that the Prince of Wales adopted this method of surprising the vigilant guardians of the peace.

The Norwegians of Iowa are raising a fund with which to endow a college. $20,000 have been subscribed.

Slavery is very near its end in Delaware. Between 1850 and 1860 the slave population decreased from 2,290 to 1,805.

The public schools of Connecticut educate eighty thousand children at five dollars a year each.

The Syrian relief fund, in New York, now amounts to $18,544,89.

The yellow fever at Honduras has swept off the entire European population.

Concord, Massachusetts, has exactly the same number of inhabitants that it had in 1850.

GARIBALDI.—The Paris Patrie says that as soon as the annexation of Naples and Sicily to Sardinia is proclaimed, Garibaldi will resign his position and authority and assume the title and functions of commander-in-chief of the land and sea forces of southern Italy. He will exclusively occupy himself in preparing for war next spring, and was to make an appeal to all Europe for volunteers.

FAILURE OF FUSION.—The New York Tribune of Oct. 31st, announces the entire failure of fusion in New Jersey. The Douglas men have reinstated their ticket.

In New York the Tribune says it is privately conceded that Lincoln will sweep the state by a majority variously estimated at between FIFTY and SEVENTY-FIVE THOUSAND.

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.—The steamship Europia brings Queenstown dates to the 21st. Weather in England stormy. The Russian embassy has departed from Turin. Victor Emmanuel had not reached Naples. Austrian troops concentrating on the frontiers. The sovereigns met at Warsaw on the 21st. The French bishop and clergy continued boldly and vigorously to defend the papal cause.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 1st—9 P. M.

The Lincolnites are in procession to-night. The Wide-Awakes, numbering about 250, formed in front of the Mayor's office; 300 policemen were detailed to protect them. The hissing and hooting is universal, by men, women and children. They started on their route at half-past seven. Baltimore street was thronged with people waiting for the grand union procession. They were received throughout the route with groans and hisses. No attempt was made to molest them. On Lombard street they passed the Union Minute Men forming, and were greeted with hisses from the whole line. They are now marching through the lower section of the city, escorted by a large police force. They will bring up at the Front Street Theatre, where a mass meeting will be held.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.

Counterfeit 5's on the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Hartford are in circulation.

Advices from Havana report the barque Syria of New York as sold to the slave traders.

The Times' Baltimore correspondent says the Wide Awakes were rushed upon while entesing the Front street theatre by a crowd of half-grown men and boys, and scattered in all directions. Only one person, however, was injured with a brick. After entering theatre an attempt was made to organize an antagonistic meeting, but the police interfered and dispersed all but the republicans, who, after a few addresses, also retired.

ALBANY, Nov. 2.

About 9 o'clock this morning a lawyer named John Perry entered the premises kept by John Cranfield, as a porter house, and committed assault on him. Cranfield drew a revolver and shot Perry twice—he cannot survive. The quarrel rose out of a suit for possession of the premises.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.

The Northern Light reports the sloops of war, Lancaster, St. Mary's at Havana, and the steamship Brooklyn and storeship Falworth at Aspinwall 25th.

Advices from Valpraiso are to the 2nd, Callao to the 20th of Oct. The steamer Moses Taylor had touched at Leta. The Vultimatum of the American government had been rejected by Peru so far as the Lizzie Thompson, Georgiana and Saratoga claim; this refusal would compel the American minister to demand his passport.

A frightful accident occurred on the 10th in dry dock at San Corinzo involving the entire loss of the Peruvian frigate Callao formerly the Auperimac and a great loss of life. She was being docked with the crew on board when some stanchions of the dock gave way causing her to pitch over when she rapidly filled with water, a great number of people including men, women and sick in the hospital all perished. All the particulars were not known at date of advices but it was believed the number killed would reach 250, the number wounded with broken heads, arms and legs was very great. The Callao was a 44 gun frigate built at Blackwall, England six years old. The dry dock was damaged and rendered useless.

The revolution in Bolivia was suppressed. Several officers had been shot. Advices from Nicaragua state the news of Walker's capture reached there on the 30th of Sept. causing much rejoicing. Vanderbilt had made the government an offer of transit but was not accepted. The U. S. steamer Narraganset left on the 8th for Panama. A difficulty had arisen at Panama between the United States and British naval forces owing to the arrest of an American officer and an American citizen for refusing to attend to the challenge of a British sentinel who had been stationed in the streets in recent disturbances.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.

The Charleston Mercury of Oct. 24th, contains an article ridiculing the attempt of the opponents of Lincoln, lead on by the alarm of the Herald, to frighten northern voters from supporting Lincoln on the pretense of southern secession and resistance. It concludes as follows:

"Are the people of New York so timid and so profligate in political sentiment, that an attempt so uncomplimentary to their integrity and intelligence should be gravely attempted? It is indeed an argument against their capacity for self government—an insult to the cardinal principle of republican government, and a horrid slur upon the rural population of the great Empire state. In fact, we are astonished at the audacity, not to speak of the immorality, of the attempt."

The Charleston (S. C.) News also has an article protesting against the attempt of politicians to create a panic, by influencing southern banks to restrictive measures. It says:

"There is no just cause for the pressure in our money market, and which has existed and increased for three or four months. In fact, it is the periodic infliction (only the most aggravated) which the banks have come to impose upon the people of Charleston and the state every summer and autumn.

We protest, also, against the restrictions on commercial operations on account of the political exigency. The crisis cannot, under any circumstances, reach a serious or decisive character before February. It will probably, too, be peaceful and without any jar to commerce. Exports will go out, and imports will come in, under any new phase which affairs may assume. The north, Europe, the south will agree to and insist upon that."

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 30.

A passenger train on the Great Western railroad met with a serious accident on Saturday at Mauvesterre bridge, seven miles west of Jacksonville. It appears that the bridge had taken fire from the sparks of the locomotive of a previous train, which the temporary watchman discovered, and ran back to notify the engineer af the approaching train. The engineer reversed his engine, but could not come to a halt, and the engine and baggage car running upon the burnt bridge, were precipitated into the bottom of the cheek. Fortunately the couplings between the baggage and passenger cars gave way, and this saved the lives of hundreds. The regular watchman, who had been on business at Springfield, and whose name was Elijah Montaine, happened to be on the tender at the time, and was instantly killed. The engineer, John Johnson, was slightly injured, and a fireman, John Humes, so badly hurt that slender hopes are entertained of his recovery.

BUFFALO, Oct. 31.

A singular trembling of the earth is reported to have been felt in various parts of Western New York on Friday night. Especially at Oswego and Rochester was the vibration sensibly observed. It was no doubt a slight shock of an earthquake. In some places the shock was so severe that people were frightened out of their homes

THE GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY TROUBLES.—Baring & Brothers have made the threatened attachment of all the rolling stock—locomotives and cars—of the Grand Trunk (Canada) railway, to secure their debt.—The road has a large business on its hands, the receipts for the middle week of October being $80,000, or an increase of $20,000, and needs more freight cars to do its work. It had contracted with a Portland company for $200,000 worth of such cars, and nearly all were done when the financial embarrassments of the road obliged it to throw up the engagement. Probably the Barings, who have got the elephant on their hands, will have to run the road, and hire or buy these new cars, in order to perform its business.

The Richmond Palladium gets off the following:

"A gentleman traveling through Jay county in this state, sometime since, called at a house by the wayside and enquired of an old woman what were the political proclivities of her neighbors. "Well," said she, 'there is a feller named Douglas who will get some votes, Lincoln will get several, and a chap named Breckinridge will get two or three, but a man they call old Abe will knock the socks off of all of them.'"

THE POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY DODGE.—The New Orleans Delta sums up the virtues of Mr. Douglas' "great principle," in the following patent medicine style:

"Mr. Douglas' great principle of squatter sovereignty is a very remarkable principle indeed. In the most mysterious and inconceivable manner it produces the most wonderful and most opposite effects. In the hands of that distinguished practitioner, Dr. Douglas, it can accomplish any desired result. It is particularly good for the south, and especially good for the north. It can expand the area of the free states and extend the institutions of the slave states. It can repress the growth of the north and limit the increase of the south. And, strange to say, it can produce all of these extraordinary effects, not only successively, but concurrently. Who shall say that a principle so remarkable, so little short of miraculous, we may almost venture to state, is not destined to confer on its inventor a fame surpassing the celebrity of Brandreth and exceeding the notoriety of Swaim?"

GOOD GRIT.—A German woman near the residence of Rev. Henry Eliot, in Helin, in this county, whose husband was absent, on Wednesday last saw a huge bear make its way into the hog pen, already cocked and primed for a mess of fresh pork. The frau had no idea of parting with her fat hog, and picking up a sled stake, made for the bear. Mr. Bruin, his mouth watering for the breakfast that was before him, paid but little attention to the woman, but pitched into the porker. A lucky blow from her hands with the stake across the nose of the bear while he was engaged with the hog, laid him out—dead as a herring. Such a woman is worth having. She is worthy to be the wife of a Daniel Boone—or any one else.—Glencoe (Min.) Register.

PRAY FOR DOUGLAS.—The Grand Rapids Eagle is responsible for the following:

At a prayer and conference meeting, held in the red school house, in the town of Walker, Kent county, Michigan, on Sunday evening, the 14th inst., quite a ludicrous scene occurred; the solemnity of the occasion was, by a word, changed into irrepressible laughter. The usual exercises, at such meetings, having quietly progressed for some time, an invitation was given by the leader, to all or any persons present, who had absent or wayward friends, to give their names, that they might be presented to the Throne of Grace, through the prayers of Christians; at which an old gentleman arose from his seat, and in a serious and solemn manner, said that he had a friend who was once very dear to him, but that he had been wandering, like a stray sheep from the fold, anxiously looking for his mother, and that he had traveled the country over in his fruitless search, and was really in need of the counsels and prayers of Christians. "Brethren, pray for Stephen A. Douglas!"

The House that Sam Built.

The following is a capital parody on "The House that Jack Built." As a "Humor of the Campaign," we have seen nothing better:

THE WHITE HOUSE—This is the house that Sam built.
$100,000—This is the malt that lay in the house that Sam built.

This machine is warranted to be superior to any other in market, for all kinds of family sewing. Mrs. A., from her thorough acquaintance with this and the other kinds in use, feels entire confidence in recommending this to her friends and the public, as possessing superior advantages, as she will be ready to demonstrate to the satisfaction of those who may favor her with a call. Persons desirous of purchasing, are invited to call and examine for themselves. As a further inducement, Mrs. A. offers gratuitous instruction in the use of the machine to those who purchase of her; all necessary instruction to enable a person of ordinary capacity to operate the machine successfully can be given in the short space of one hour. Price, from $45, $55 up to $100, accordin gto size. Hemmers, Gauges and Needles kept with the machine. MRS. WM. ADDY.

The Assemblyman Once More.

After a day's rest, the Democrat returns to Mr. Graham in a column and a half article. It reiterates all the charges we have disproved, but descends to some specifications it prudently omitted in its former article. Of Mr. Graham, it says:

"He has not been, even nominally, a resident of this city for the last three years. * * Among the pine logs in Minnesota where his place of business is, and where he has spent seven-eights of his time since his family has resided in this city. * * During his whole term of office [as school commissioner] he was not in the city three months. * * His business interests are in Minnesota—he but sojourns here."

To make short work of these statements, we pronounce each and every one a positive falsehood. Since the residence of Mr. Graham in this city, which dates back three years ago this fall, when he purchased the dwelling house where he now lives, instead of being in Minnesota seven-eights of his time, he has not been absent to exceed one-fourth of the time. And we repeat the declaration we have before made, that during these three years, Mr. Graham has passed more time in the city than Mr. Richardson. During the year he served as school commissioner, instead of not being in the city three months, as the Democrat alleges, Mr. Graham was not absent more than three months, and he was present at the commencement of each term of the schools, to aid in the important work of starting them. For six consecutive months of that year, he was not absent from the city all.

If these facts, which, if it were necessary, can be substantiated by dates, make Mr. Graham a mere "sojourner," and only a "nominal resident," we would like to know in what position Mr. Richardson is placed? Can he show as good a record, in this respect, as Mr. Graham? We ask candid men, not the habitual maligners who figure in the Democrat.

Whatever interest Mr. Graham may once have had in Minnesota, or however much time he may have devoted to them there, he has sold all his property in that state, and proposes hereafter to give his time and business exclusively to Janesville. Can the friends of Mr. Richardson say as much for him and his California interests?

The objections and charges made against Mr. Graham suggest a farther comparison between him him and his competitor for the suffrages of the people of this city. How do these two men really stand in relation to the interests of the city, as represented by their support of the city government? The assessment roll, which is a true indicator, makes Mr. Graham, in his own name, a tax-payer for city expenses to the amount of $42,91. He is also the owner of two acres on Milton avenue, assessed to Royal Wood in last year's assessment, which he purchased some time since from Mr. Wood, and on which the tax is $4,00. Mr. Richardson, with all his personal wealth, is not upon the personal tax-roll at all, and all we have been able to find of real estate assessed to him is two vacant lots on which the tax is $10,83. If he has more on the roll we will cheerfully state it. Tested by this standard, how utterly hypocritical and unjust are the accusations against Mr. Graham and inconsistent with the claims for Mr. Richardson as the only friend of the interests and business of the city. As a tax-payer in the state, it is not unlikely that a like disproportion would be found to exist.

The Democrat has the meanness to repeat its charge that Mr. Graham has written the notices which his old friends in New York have made concerning him since his nomination. This charge is of the same character as the accusation which has been industriously circulated that one of the editors of this paper had in a private conversation admitted that to be the case. The latter, in relation to ourselves, we know to be a malicious falsehood, and have not the least doubt the other is.

Great stress is laid by the Democrat upon the attention and time we have devoted to Mr. Graham. That paper has forced this course upon us. As soon as he was nominated he was assailed with a virulence and vindictiveness seldom visited upon any candidate. Not only was his personal character traduced, but his family was assailed.—From that time to this the warfare has been continued. The Democrat has devoted, and is devoting more effort to him than all its other candidates, from Douglas down to coroner. The streets are full of abuse and detraction of him, and private effort is unceasingly added to public labor. In the opposition to him, there is both a personal malignity that should be defeated in its gratification, and a political purpose which no republican should aid. These are the reasons why Mr. Graham has required a continual defence from us, and they are reasons not at all complimentary to those who have furnished them.

Washington on Slavery in the Territories.

We have heretofore shown that JEFFERSON was in favor prohibiting slavery in the territories. Below we give an extract from the celebrated letter of WASHINGTON to LAFAYETTE, in which he enunciates the same views which the republican party of this day adopt, and which it is pledged to carry out in the administration of the government, in relation to "our new territories." Washington says:

"I agree with you cordially in your views in regard to negro slavery. I have long considered it a most serious evil, both socially and politically, and I should rejoice in any feasible scheme to rid our states of such a burden. The congress of 1787 adopted an ordinance which prohibits the existence of involuntary servitude in our northwestern territory forever. I consider it a wise measure. It meets with the approval and assent of nearly every member from the state more immediately interested in slave labor. The prevailing opinion in VIRGINIA is against the spread of slavery in our new territories, and I TRUST WE SHALL HAVE A CONFEDERATION OF FREE STATES."

☞ The St. Paul Pioneer and Democrat says truly that the choice is between Lincoln and a Free Code and Breckinridge and a Slave Code. Who can hesitate which to choose?

☞ At every presidential election there is a howl set up from the south, and echoed from the doughfaces of the north, that the Union will be dissolved if the south cannot have its way. It is time to have this matter tested, and the best way to effect this object is to elect Lincoln. We will then see whether they will do what they threaten.

GIVE THEM A DOSE.—The southern democracy have treated Douglas and his popular sovereignty bantling very shabbily.—The best way to pay them is to treat them with a full dose of Lincoln and Hamlin, next Tuesday.

☞ The Memphis Daily Appeal says that rather than have disunion the city of Memphis can better pay $5,000,000, and even more.

☞ The Milwaukee News says, "Cheer up, fellow democrats." They can't do it, poor fellows, and it is cruel in the News to ask them. They do not believe in making merry at a funeral.

☞ The Rockford Register says that the republicans of Freeport, Ill., had a grand celebration on Thursday last of the result of the recent elections, and that a torch-light procession turned out 1344 torches, an almost incredible number for an impromtu local meeting.

THE GERMANS FOR LINCOLN.—The N. Y. Tribune says that Mr. Wm. M. Wermerskirch, superintendent of the Naturalization office of the republican committee, is briskly employed issuing papers. He has now on his roll 3000 names, over 90 per cent. of which are German—and all for LINCOLN. The Germans can't tolerate fusion.

Gov. Washington Hunt, who has been so anxious to restore peace and harmony to the country, has taken the best way to do it; he has retired from any participation in the campaign.

THE POPE PREPARING TO LEAVE ROME.—The Paris correspondent of the London Times says that the departure of the Pope's Nuncio from Paris was considered the forerunner of the Pope's quitting Rome. The same authority says that seldom has the spirit of hostility been so general in the church of France, and never has it been more boldly displayed. Pastoral circulars, allocutions and sermons denounce and all but implore divine vengeance on the invaders of the Papal states and, by implication, on the emperor. The whole prelacy is aroused from one end of the country to the other.

☞ Punch has a leading picture in which he is introducing the Prince of Wales to his pretty Miss Columbia, with the assurance that he don't get such a partner as her every day.

☞ Robert Chambers, a Scottish writer of distinction, and a member of a well known Edingurgh publishing house, is at present in Chicago.

John B. Gough receives $250 for each lecture given since his return. He has already acquired a property valued at upwards of $30,000.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

It is said that the Prince of Wales had his pocket picked twice while he was in New York—a fact that will favorably impress him with the freedom of our institutions.

We learn from Washington that the President has made a decision in the case of Gen. Harney, which will be promulgated through the department. Though he is regarded as having violated the orders of Lieut. Gen. Scott, he is, in consideration of distinguished military service, merely slightly officially censured. Gen. Harney has been at Washington some weeks awaiting the executive determination.

Mrs. Lewis writes from Paris to the Home Journal an account of a visit she paid to Lamartine, in the conclusion of which the poet statesman's opinion of America and Americans is given without reserve, and it is anything but complimentary.—Lamartine says—"The Americans hate me because I am poor, and I return the compliment most cordially." The French poet is mistaken; Americans pity, but do not hate beggars.

Gen. Joe Lane, the "national democratic" candidate for vice-president is in New York.

HON. ALEX. H. STEPHENS.—The St. Louis Republican and the Chicago Times and Herald are trying to ridicule the announcement that Hon. Alex. H. Stephens, of Ga., has abandoned Douglas, having become satisfied of the folly of sticking to a sinking ship.

The St. Louis Bulletin, whiah first published the fact, however, reiterates its statement, and declares, as per authority, that Mr. Stephens, though a friend of Douglas, has determined to labor for the Breckinridge ticket at the south the rest of the campaign. There is good reason to believe that such is the fact.

GOOD CHEER.—The Albany Evening Journal states that the N. Y. state republican committee had a meeting on Friday last, and that the intelligence received from every county in the state was of the most cheering character. The state is not only deemed safe beyond all possible contingency, but the majority will exceed, in magnitude, the estimates and hopes of the most sanguine.

On Thursday last a lad named Heelan, aged ten years, fell from the fifth story of Whitman & Vasburgh's paper factory, thro' the hatchway to the ground floor, and severely hurt his head! A slight accident, urely.

Two Philadelphia banks have been victimised out of $1,700 by forged checks.

Some three millions of gold dollars, United States currency, are about to be coined, of larger size than the little ones now in circulation.

Mr. Renselear Smith, the engineer on the Mineral Point railroad, who met with the unfortunate accident which we announced on Monday last, died of his injuries at an early hour on Tuesday morning, at Warren.

In Madrid, Spain, recently, a daring æronaut, in attempting to ascend in a balloon, hanging by his feet, fell at a hight of half a mile, and was dashed to pieces.

A race is pending between the steamers Alida and Daniel Crew, on the Hudson, for one thousand dollars.

Every policeman in Albany was astonished on Thursday last, by the delivery of a ton of coal at his residence. No explanations were made, but it is suspected that the Prince of Wales adopted this method of surprising the vigilant guardians of the peace.

The Norwegians of Iowa are raising a fund with which to endow a college. $20,000 have been subscribed.

Slavery is very near its end in Delaware. Between 1850 and 1860 the slave population decreased from 2,290 to 1,805.

The public schools of Connecticut educate eighty thousand children at five dollars a year each.

The Syrian relief fund, in New York, now amounts to $18,544,89.

The yellow fever at Honduras has swept off the entire European population.

Concord, Massachusetts, has exactly the same number of inhabitants that it had in 1850.

GARIBALDI.—The Paris Patrie says that as soon as the annexation of Naples and Sicily to Sardinia is proclaimed, Garibaldi will resign his position and authority and assume the title and functions of commander-in-chief of the land and sea forces of southern Italy. He will exclusively occupy himself in preparing for war next spring, and was to make an appeal to all Europe for volunteers.

FAILURE OF FUSION.—The New York Tribune of Oct. 31st, announces the entire failure of fusion in New Jersey. The Douglas men have reinstated their ticket.

In New York the Tribune says it is privately conceded that Lincoln will sweep the state by a majority variously estimated at between FIFTY and SEVENTY-FIVE THOUSAND.

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.—The steamship Europia brings Queenstown dates to the 21st. Weather in England stormy. The Russian embassy has departed from Turin. Victor Emmanuel had not reached Naples. Austrian troops concentrating on the frontiers. The sovereigns met at Warsaw on the 21st. The French bishop and clergy continued boldly and vigorously to defend the papal cause.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 1st—9 P. M.

The Lincolnites are in procession to-night. The Wide-Awakes, numbering about 250, formed in front of the Mayor's office; 300 policemen were detailed to protect them. The hissing and hooting is universal, by men, women and children. They started on their route at half-past seven. Baltimore street was thronged with people waiting for the grand union procession. They were received throughout the route with groans and hisses. No attempt was made to molest them. On Lombard street they passed the Union Minute Men forming, and were greeted with hisses from the whole line. They are now marching through the lower section of the city, escorted by a large police force. They will bring up at the Front Street Theatre, where a mass meeting will be held.

Counterfeit 5's on the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Hartford are in circulation.

Advices from Havana report the barque Syria of New York as sold to the slave traders.

The Times' Baltimore correspondent says the Wide Awakes were rushed upon while entesing the Front street theatre by a crowd of half-grown men and boys, and scattered in all directions. Only one person, however, was injured with a brick. After entering theatre an attempt was made to organize an antagonistic meeting, but the police interfered and dispersed all but the republicans, who, after a few addresses, also retired.

ALBANY, Nov. 2.

About 9 o'clock this morning a lawyer named John Perry entered the premises kept by John Cranfield, as a porter house, and commited assault on him. Cranfield drew a revolver and shot Perry twice—he cannot survive. The quarrel rose out of a suit for possession of the premises.

Advices from Valpraiso are to the 2nd, Callao to the 20th of Oct. The steamer Moses Taylor had touched at Leta. The Vultimatum of the American government had been rejected by Peru so far as the Lizzie Thompson, Georgiana and Saratoga claim; this refusal would compel the American minister to demand his passport.

A frightful accident occurred on the 10th in dry dock at San Corinzo involving the entire loss of the Peruvian frigate Callao formerly the Auperimac and a great loss of life. She was being docked with the crew on board when some stanchions of the dock gave way causing her to pitch over when she rapidly filled with water, a great number of people including men, women and sick in the hospital all perished. All the particulars were not known at date of advices but it was believed the number killed would reach 250, the number wounded with broken heads, arms and legs was very great. The Callao was a 44 gun frigate built at Blackwall, England six years old. The dry dock was damaged and rendered useless.

The revolution in Bolivia was suppressed. Several officers had been shot. Advices from Nicaraugua state the news of Walker's capture reached there on the 30th of Sept. causing much rejoicing. Vanderbilt had made the government an offer of transit but was not accepted. The U. S. steamer Narganset left on the 8th for Panama. A difficulty had arisen at Panama between the United States and British naval forces owing to the arrest of an American officer and an American citizen for refusing to attend to the challenge of a British sentinel who had been stationed in the streets in recent disturbances.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.

The Charleston Mercury of Oct. 24th, contains an article ridiculing the attempt of the opponents of Lincoln, lead on by the alarm of the Herald, to frighten northern voters from supporting Lincoln on the pretense of southern secession and resistance. It concludes as follows:

"Are the people of New York so timid and so profligate in political sentiment, that an attempt so uncomplimentary to their integrity and intelligence should be gravely attempted? It is indeed an argument against their capacity for self government—an insult to the cardinal principle of republican government, and a horrid slur upon the rural population of the great Empire state. In fact, we are astonished at the audacity, not to speak of the immorality, of the attempt."

The Charleston (S. C.) News also has an article protesting against the attempt of politicians to create a panic, by influencing southern banks to restrictive measures. It says:

"There is no just cause for the pressure in our money market, and which has existed and increased for three or four months. In fact, it is the periodic infliction (only the most aggravated) which the banks have come to impose upon the people of Charleston and the state every summer and autumn.

We protest, also, against the restrictions on commercial operations on account of the political exigency. The crisis cannot, under any circumstances, reach a serious or decisive character before February. It will probably, too, be peaceful and without any jar to commerce. Exports will go out, and imports will come in, under any new phase which affairs may assume. The north, Europe, the south will agree to and insist upon that."

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 30.

A passenger train on the Great Western railroad met with a serious accident on Saturday at Mauvesterre bridge, seven miles west of Jacksonville. It appears that the bridge had taken fire from the sparks of the locomotive of a previous train, which the temporary watchman discovered, and ran back to notify the engineer af the approaching train. The engineer reversed his engine, but could not come to a halt, and the engine and baggage car running upon the burnt bridge, were precipitated into the bottom of the creek. Fortunately the couplings between the baggage and passenger cars gave way, and this saved the lives of hundreds. The regular watchman, who had been on business at Springfield, and whose name was Elijah Montaine, happened to be on the tender at the time, and was instantly killed. The engineer, John Johnson, was slightly injured, and a fireman, John Humes, so badly hurt that slender hopes are entertained of his recovery.

BUFFALO, Oct. 31.

A singular trembling of the earth is reported to have been felt in various parts of Western New York on Friday night. Especially at Oswego and Rochester was the vibration sensibly observed. It was no doubt a slight shock of an earthquake. In some places the shock was so severe that people were frightened out of their homes

THE GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY TROUBLES.—Baring & Brothers have made the threatened attachment of all the rolling stock—locomotives and cars—of the Grand Trunk (Canada) railway, to secure their debt.—The road has a large business on its hands, the receipts for the middle week of October being $80,000, or an increase of $20,000, and needs more freight cars to do its work. It had contracted with a Portland company for $200,000 worth of such cars, and nearly all were done when the financial embarrassments of the road obliged it to throw up the engagement. Probably the Barings, who have got the elephant on their hands, will have to run the road, and hire or buy these new cars, in order to perform its business.

The Richmond Palladium gets off the following:

"A gentleman traveling through Jay county in this state, sometime since, called at a house by the wayside and enquired of an old woman what were the political proclivities of her neighbors. "Well," said she, 'there is a feller named Douglas who will get some votes, Lincoln will get several, and a chap named Breckinridge will get two or three, but a man they call old Abe will knock the socks off of all of them.'"

THE POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY DODGE.—The New Orleans Delta sums up the virtues of Mr. Douglas' "great principle," in the following patent medicine style:

"Mr. Douglas' great principle of squatter sovereignty is a very remarkable principle indeed. In the most mysterious and inconceivable manner it produces the most wonderful and most opposite effects. In the hands of that distinguished practitioner, Dr. Douglas, it can accomplish any desired result. It is particularly good for the south, and especially good for the north. It can expand the area of the free states and extend the institutions of the slave states. It can repress the growth of the north and limit the increase of the south. And, strange to say, it can produce all of these extraordinary effects, not only successively, but concurrently. Who shall say that a principle so remarkable, so little short of miraculous, we may almost venture to state, is not destined to confer on its inventor a fame surpassing the celebrity of Brandreth and exceeding the notoriety of Swaim?"

GOOD GRIT.—A German woman near the residence of Rev. Henry Eliot, in Helin, in this county, whose husband was absent, on Wednesday last saw a huge bear make its way into the hog pen, already cocked and primed for a mess of fresh pork. The frau had no idea of parting with her fat hog, and piching up a sled stake, made for the bear. Mr. Bruin, his mouth watering for the breakfast that was before him, paid but little attention to the woman, but pitched into the porker. A lucky blow from her hands with the stake across the nose of the bear while he was engaged with the hog, laid him out—dead as a herring. Such a woman is worth having. She is worthy to be the wife of a Daniel Boone—or any one else.—Glencoe (Min.) Register.

PRAY FOR DOUGLAS.—The Grand Rapids Eagle is responsible for the following:

At a prayer and conference meeting, held in the red school house, in the town of Walker, Kent county, Michigan, on Sunday evening, the 14th inst., quite a ludicrous scene occurred; the solemnity of the occasion was, by a word, changed into irrepressible laughter. The usual exercises, at such meetings, having quietly progressed for some time, an invitation was given by the leader, to all or any persons present, who had absent or wayward friends, to give their names, that they might be presented to the Throne of Grace, through the prayers of Christians; at which an old gentleman arose from his seat, and in a serious and solemn manner, said that he had a friend who was once very dear to him, but that he had been wandering, like a stray sheep from the fold, anxiously looking for his mother, and that he had traveled the country over in his fruitless search, and was really in need of the counsels and prayers of Christians. "Brethren, pray for Stephen A. Douglas!"

THE UNITED STATES AND ITS PECULIARITIES.

CONTAINING a familiar explanation of the national traits, and social and domestic usages of its people, in 2 vols., 1st vol. 400 pages, 12 mo., price $1,—to appear as early as possible—by William B. West, Janesville, Wis.

Though favored by flattering testimonials from authors, publishers and the press, such is the present state of the book trade that an advance, to cover the expense of stereotype plates, is now required as the sine qua non of publication.

Under these circumstances the inhabitants of Janesville are respectfully called upon to enable their fellow citizen to submit his work, not only to the foreigners of this country, but to the people of the "United Kingdom," for their better understanding of American institutions and the advantages, privileges and greatness of this land of freedom.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Rev. Daniel Stansbury.

The following preamble and resolutions were adopted at a meeting of the ministerial association for Janesville district.

WHEREAS, The great head of the church has seen fit to remove from among us our beloved brother, the Rev. Daniel Stansbury, late presiding elder of Janesville district, who after a painful and protracted illness fell asleep in the arms of that Savior, he so long and faithfully served—therefore

Resolved, That it is a subject of gratitude and thankfulness to God that he was sustained throughout his afflictions by an unwavering trust in the atoning merits of his dear Savior. As he had lived right, so he died right, blessed be the Lord!

Resolved, That while we bow with christian submission to the will of God as revealed in this providence, we distinctly recognize in it the warning voice of God to us, and will try to heed and obey it.

Resolved, That we tender to his afflicted family the warmest sympathy and christian condolance and assure them that they live in our affections and will be remembered in our prayers.

Resolved, That we are gratified with the christian kindness and sympathy shown to the afflicted family of our brother by the community which has known him so long and so favorably.

Resolved, That the above preamble and resolutions be published in the newspapers of this city and also in the Northwestern Christian Advocate at Chicago.

J. H. JENNE, Sec'y.

Janesville, Oct. 31st, 1860.

BUSINESS BLOCKS.—Three elegant business blocks, built of brick, have been erected in this city during the summer. One on the corner of Main and Milwaukee streets, by Peter Myers; one on the corner of Milwaukee and River streets, by Wm. M. Tallman; and one on Main street, north of Milwaukee street, by J. J. R. Pease. They are all elegant and substantial buildings, and add very much to the appearance of our business streets. The one built by Mr. Myers is especially noteworthy for its size and commanding architectural appearance. A more detailed discription of these improvements will be given hereafter.

WATER WITCH.—The regular monthly meeting of Water Witch Engine Co. No. 2, will be held at their hall on Saturday evening, Nov. 3d, at 7 o'clock. A full attendance of the members is requested.

C. P. KING, Foreman.
A. R. JOHNSON, Clerk.

A MYSTERY SOLVED.—For several days past we have noticed a large quantity of boxes, barrels and kegs arriving at the People's Drug Store and not knowing whether they contained drugs and medicines or something that had to do with the crash of the Union that is predicted by some, we made bold to inquire about them. Curtis told us that it was his fall styles of medicines just arriving from New York, and judging from the quantity received he will be able to supply all who may favor him with a call. Although this is a healthy country, every one at times is wanting something in this line as well as paints, oils, glass, toilet articles &c., therefore we advise all to give him a call as he has a good assortment of good articles, and will sell cheap as the cheapest. His trade is constantly increasing, which goes to show that all who try him are satisfied with his way of doing business.

DIVIDE AND CONQUER IS THEIR POLICY.—The republicans of this city understand the game of their opponents. It is to divide and conquer. At all our city elections, the democracy have worked upon this plan, and every time, they have been defeated.—They make a great fuss, and brag immensely of what they are going to do, but the ballot boxes invariably tell the story of their failures. This is because the republicans have stood by their nominations, and have turned a deaf ear to the coaxings, and falsehoods of their opponents. In no other way, than by pursuing our previous policy, can we hope to continue our majority in this city. When we begin to yield, by listening favorably to their invitations to vote for some one of their nominees, we strike a blow at our republican organization. We are persuaded that no true republican will be found scratching his ticket on Tuesday.

☞ The weather has been cold, wet and dreary for some days, but it is only getting rid of the surplus moisture, preparatory to the election, when "old Abe will be elected." Then there will be a reign of another sort, which none will regret.

LINCOLN IN MISSOURI.—John E. Inman, who returned from Pike's Peak a few days since, reports to us a vote on the cars between St. Joseph and Quincy, while in the state of Missouri. The vote stood for LINCOLN 47, Douglas 27, Bell 17, Breckinridge 5. There were only 3 Pike Peakers on the train, 2 of whom were for Douglas. The passengers seemed to be generally residents of that section of the country.

☞ It is a matter of surprise to some that the democracy are so bitter against Mr. Graham, when no cause is assigned which is worthy of a moment's attention. The explanation is that he is a republican who stands by his principles and his party, at all times. The democratic leaders don't like such men. They prefer those who will divide with them every time there is an election.

A MALICIOUS THEFT.—Some body, who might have been in a good deal better business, last night stole the large gilt spoon used as a sign by Weeb & Lee. A dose of tartar emetic from the bowl of the spoon would serve the thief right.

MEETING IN HARMONY.—The republicans of Harmony turned out well Wednesday evening to hear Messrs. C. R. Gibbs and C. G. Gillett. These gentlemen made telling speeches, and the meeting was enthusiastic. The school house, (near John Young's), was filled, and the ladies of the neighborhood were among the auditors. Harmony proposes to give 200 majority for the republican ticket.

To Annie.

Our heavenly Father knows, Annie,
The strength of human ties
Which draw our spirits earthward
And will not let them rise.

He formed the golden chain, Annie,
Which bindeth heart to heart;
And gently, very gently
He takes the links apart.

How many loved ones, Annie,
Have parted from our side,
And crossed the silent river,
With Jesus for their guide.

Waiting upon the shore, Annie,
We fondly linger yet,
Though oft the waves of Jordan
Have almost touched our feet.

And I have sometimes thought, Annie,
'Twas sweet to pass away
Like forest-flowers, which wither,
By slow and sure decay.

The flowers have gone to rest, Annie,
And e'er they wake again,
We may have passed the river,
Beyond the reach of pain.

Surely we need not fear, Annie,
To tread the gloomy vale,
For Christ will be our portion,
When heart and flesh shall fail.

But whether soon, or late, Annie,
When that great change takes place,
He who hath died to save us
Will give us dying grace.

Terrace Hill, Nov., 1860. E. S. KELLOGG.

THE IMPORTANCE OF ONE VOTE.—It often happens that one vote decides elections. Governors have been elected by one vote, and in minor offices one vote has frequently decided it. At the recent election, the republican candidate for clerk of the sessions in Schuylkill county, John B. Reed, was defeated by one vote. In Sullivan county, the republican candidate for commissioner is defeated by one vote.—Bradford (Pa.) Reporter.

SNOW IN SOUTH CAROLINA.—The Pickens (S. C.) Courier furnishes the following:

"A sudden change of the weather occurred on Saturday. It was unusually cool. There was snow in some sections of the district, and the mountains north of us were covered to the depth of four to six inches with it. We have since had killing frosts."

A fellow stopped at the Tremont the morning after Douglas was received and wanted a room. The clerk told him he could put him in a room where Judge Douglas spent the previous evening. The traveler being a Douglas man took a light with pleasure, and marched up stairs to No. 142. In it were four beds, three of them occupied by two persons each, and the fourth bed with one tenant; round about there were spittoons loaded with old quids, stands covered with empty decanters, the bones of sundry ducks, the floor garnished with the remains of wine glasses, and many other evidences of a night's amusement. The occupants of the beds were noisy, and things generally were unprepossessing to a quiet man. Our lodger deliberately walked down stairs, called on the clerk for his bill, and observed that he "hadn't the least objection to sleeping in the same room with Stephen A. Douglas, but this thing of lodging with the whole democratic party was a d—d sight more than he bargained for!"—McGregor Times.

Phœnix Insurance Co. of Hartford.

We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Phœnix Insurance Company, published in another column. This we consider one of the most reliable Insurance Companies in the country, and we think no one need have the least hesitancy in effecting an insurance in it. Their exhibit shows conclusive of its reliability. No one owning property should go without an insurance, and to such we recommend them to call on the agent and at once effect an insurance.—Home Journal, Ind.

Continental Insurance Company.

This prosperous corporation, in order to meet its present and growing wants, has just completed the purchase of the desirable property known as No. 102 Broadway and No. 1 Pine street. Possession will be given on or before the 1st of May next, when we learn a new and beautiful structure will at once be erected, suited to the requirements of the Company. No institution of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparallelled prosperity as can this. Commencing with a cash capital of half a million of dollars, it has steadily and rapidly grown, until its available assests now amount to about one million. The officers and directors are known all over the country as among the leading influential business men and capitalists of this city. No better, safer, or stronger Insurance Company exists than the Continental. May it live and grow a thousand years, and—continue to pay fat dividends.—New York Independent.

To the Public.

"Now is the accepted time"—to-morrow may be too late—delays are dangerous.—Have you got a store of goods? Have you a dwelling house? Have you any insurable property? Go at once to Dimock's Agency and have it insured. Do not let the melancholy words "he had no insurance" prove applicable to your case in event of a sweeping fire.

NOTHING LIKE IT TO RESTORE A DOUBTFUL CREDIT.

It is greatly to the credit of any owner or occupant of a building to have placed conspicuously over his door, any of the following leading companies' house plates. The Home of New York. The Phœnix of Hartford. The Continental of New York. The Security of New York. The Merchants of Hartford, or the Northern of London, England. Is your credit at the Banks getting below par, up with one of these plates and you are all right at the Rock County, the Central or at Hoyt's.—Every passer-by will say "there is a sound business man." Tell your New York creditors that you insure your lake freights in the reliable Old Home, and your goods after their arrival in any of these incomparable companies and your orders will at all times be filled, and at the lowest figures. A few more of these ornamental plates left at Dimock's Agency.

BOOTS & SHOES!

HAVING purchased the entire interest of Mr. W. A. Reynolds, in the well known Boot and Shoe store of

Reynolds & Vanderwarf,

I am now prepared to show what I know to be the largest and best stock of ever offered in this city. And I shall try and maintain the fair reputation of fair and honorable dealing, that this store has so long enjoyed by

BOOTS AND SHOES

SELLING GOOD GOODS

as cheap as the cheapest. I am now receiving my

Fall and Winter Stock of BOOTS & SHOES

all of which must be sold at some price. As the store I now occupy will be torn down soon, I shall close off my entire stock at and make ready to move into a new store with an entire new stock of goods. I am satisfied that I can sell goods at than any other establishment can sell the same quality of goods. All our old patrons and new ones who wish to will find it to their advantage to give me a call and examine my goods and prices before purchasing elsewhere.

The Assemblyman Once More.

After a day's rest, the Democrat returns to Mr. Graham in a column and a half article. It reiterates all the charges we have disproved, but descends to some specifications it prudently omitted in its former article. Of Mr. Graham, it says:

"He has not been, even nominally, a resident of this city for the last three years. * * Among the pine logs in Minnesota where his place of business is, and where he has spent seven-eights of his time since his family has resided in this city. * * During his whole term of office [as school commissioner] he was not in the city three months. * * His business interests are in Minnesota—he but sojourns here."

To make short work of these statements, we pronounce each and every one a positive falsehood. Since the residence of Mr. Graham in this city, which dates back three years ago this fall, when he purchased the dwelling house where he now lives, instead of being in Minnesota seven-eights of his time, he has not been absent to exceed one-fourth of the time. And we repeat the declaration we have before made, that during these three years, Mr. Graham has passed more time in the city than Mr. Richardson. During the year he served as school commissioner, instead of not being in the city three months, as the Democrat alleges, Mr. Graham was not absent more than three months, and he was present at the commencement of each term of the schools, to aid in the important work of starting them. For six consecutive months of that year, he was not absent from the city all.

If these facts, which, if it were necessary, can be substantiated by dates, make Mr. Graham a mere "sojourner," and only a "nominal resident," we would like to know in what position Mr. Richardson is placed? Can he show as good a record, in this respect, as Mr. Graham? We ask candid men, not the habitual maligners who figure in the Democrat.

Whatever interest Mr. Graham may once have had in Minnesota, or however much time he may have devoted to them there, he has sold all his property in that state, and proposes hereafter to give his time and business exclusively to Janesville. Can the friends of Mr. Richardson say as much for him and his California interests?

The objections and charges made against Mr. Graham suggest a farther comparison between him him and his competitor for the suffrages of the people of this city. How do these two men really stand in relation to the interests of the city, as represented by their support of the city government? The assessment roll, which is a true indicator, makes Mr. Graham, in his own name, a tax-payer for city expenses to the amount ot $42,91. He is also the owner of two acres on Milton avenue, assessed to Royal Wood in last year's assessment, which he purchased some time since from Mr. Wood, and on which the tax is $4,00. Mr. Richardson, with all his personal wealth, is not upon the personal tax-roll at all, and all we have been able to find of real estate assessed to him is two vacant lots on which the tax is $10,88. If he has more on the roll we will cheerfully state it. Tested by this standard, how utterly hypocritical and unjust are the accusations against Mr. Graham and inconsistent with the claims for Mr. Richardson as the only friend of the interests and business of the city. As a taxpayer in the state, it is not unlikely that a like disproportion would be found to exist.

The Democrat has the meanness to repeat its charge that Mr. Graham has written the notices which his old friends in New York have made concerning him since his nomination. This charge is of the same character as the accusation which has been industriously circulated that one of the editors of this paper had in a private conversation admitted that to be the case. The latter, in relation to ourselves, we know to be a malicious falsehood, and have not the least doubt the other is.

Great stress is laid by the Democrat upon the attention and time we have devoted to Mr. Graham. That paper has forced this course upon us. As soon as he was nominated he was assailed with a virulence and vindictiveness seldom visited upon any candidate. Not only was his personal character traduced, but his family was assailed.—From that time to this the warfare has been continued. The Democrat has devoted, and is devoting more effort to him than all its other candidates, from Douglas down to coroner. The streets are full of abuse and detraction of him, and private effort is unceasingly added to public labor. In the opposition to him, there is both a personal malignity that should be defeated in its gratification, and a political purpose which no republican should aid. These are the reasons why Mr. Graham has required a continual defence from us, and they are reasons not at all complimentary to those who have furnished them.

Washington on Slavery in the Territories.

We have heretofore shown that JEFFERSON was in favor prohibiting slavery in the territories. Below we give an extract from the celebrated letter of WASHINGTON to LAFAYETTE, in which he enunciates the same views which the republican party of this day adopt, and which it is pledged to carry out in the administration of the government, in relation to "our new territories." Washington says:

"I agree with you cordially in your views in regard to negro slavery. I have long considered it a most serious evil, both socially and politically, and I should rejoice in any feasible scheme to rid our states of such a burden. The congress of 1787 adopted an ordinance which prohibits the existence of involuntary servitude in our northwestern territory forever. I consider it a wise measure. It meets with the approval and assent of nearly every member from the state more immediately interested in slave labor. The prevailing opinion in VIRGINIA is against the spread of slavery in our new territories, and I TRUST WE SHALL HAVE A CONFEDERATION OF FREE STATES."

☞ The St. Paul Pioneer and Democrat says truly that the choice is between Lincoln and a Free Code and Breckinridge and a Slave Code. Who can hesitate which to choose?

☞ At every presidential election there is a howl set up from the south, and echoed from the doughfaces of the north, that the Union will be dissolved if the south cannot have its way. It is time to have this matter tested, and the best way to effect this object is to elect Lincoln. We will then see whether they will do what they threaten.

GIVE THEM A DOSE.—The southern democracy have treated Douglas and his popular sovereignty bantling very shabbily.—The best way to pay them is to treat them with a full dose of Lincoln and Hamlin, next Tuesday.

☞ The Memphis Daily Appeal says that rather than have disunion the city of Memphis can better pay $5,000,000, and even more.

☞ The Milwaukee News says, "Cheer up, fellow democrats." They can't do it, poor fellows, and it is cruel in the News to ask them. They do not believe in making merry at a funeral.

☞ The Rockford Register says that the republicans of Freeport, Ill., had a grand celebration on Thursday last of the result of the recent elections, and that a torch-light procession turned out 1344 torches, an almost incredible number for an impromtu local meeting.

THE GERMANS FOR LINCOLN.—The N. Y. Tribune says that Mr. Wm. M. Wermerskirch, superintendent of the Naturalization office of the republican committee, is briskly employed issuing papers. He has now on his roll 3000 names, over 90 per cent. of which are German—and all for LINCOLN. The Germans can't tolerate fusion.

Gov. Washington Hunt, who has been so anxious to restore peace and harmony to the country, has taken the best way to do it; he has retired from any participation in the campaign.

THE POPE PREPARING TO LEAVE ROME.—The Paris correspondent of the London Times says that the departure of the Pope's Nuncio from Paris was considered the forerunner of the Pope's quitting Rome. The same authority says that seldom has the spirit of hostility been so general in the church of France, and never has it been more boldly displayed. Pastoral circulars, allocutions and sermons denounce and all but implore divine vengeance on the invaders of the Papal states and, by implication, on the emperor. The whole prelacy is aroused from one end of the country to the other.

☞ Punch has a leading picture in which he is introducing the Prince of Wales to his pretty Miss Columbia, with the assurance that he don't get such a partner as her every day.

☞ Robert Chambers, a Scottish writer of distinction, and a member of a well known Edingurgh publishing house, is at present in Chicago.

John B. Gough receives $250 for each lecture given since his return. He has already acquired a property valued at upwards of $30,000.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

It is said that the Prince of Wales had his pocket picked twice while he was in New York—a fact that will favorably impress him with the freedom of our institutions.

We learn from Washington that the President has made a decision in the case of Gen. Harney, which will be promulgated through the department. Though he is regarded as having violated the orders of Lieut. Gen. Scott, he is, in consideration of distinguished military service, merely slightly officially censured. Gen. Harney has been at Washington some weeks awaiting the executive determination.

Mrs. Lewis writes from Paris to the Home Journal an account of a visit she paid to Lamartine, in the conclusion of which the poet statesman's opinion of America and Americans is given without reserve, and it is anything but complimentary.—Lamartine says—"The Americans hate me because I am poor, and I return the compliment most cordially." The French poet is mistaken; Americans pity, but do not hate beggars.

Gen. Joe Lane, the "national democratic" candidate for vice-president is in New York.

HON. ALEX. H. STEPHENS.—The St. Louis Republican and the Chicago Times and Herald are trying to ridicule the announcement that Hon. Alex. H. Stephens, of Ga., has abandoned Douglas, having become satisfied of the folly of sticking to a sinking ship.

The St. Louis Bulletin, whiah first published the fact, however, reiterates its statement, and declares, as per authority, that Mr. Stephens, though a friend of Douglas, has determined to labor for the Breckinridge ticket at the south the rest of the campaign. There is good reason to believe that such is the fact.

GOOD CHEER.—The Albany Evening Journal states that the N. Y. state republican committee had a meeting on Friday last, and that the intelligence received from every county in the state was of the most cheering character. The state is not only deemed safe beyond all possible contingency, but the majority will exceed, in magnitude, the estimates and hopes of the most sanguine.

On Thursday last a lad named Heelan, aged ten years, fell from the fifth story of Whitman & Vasburgh's paper factory, thro' the hatchway to the ground floor, and severely hurt his head! A slight accident, urely.

Two Philadelphia banks have been victimised out of $1,700 by forged checks.

Some three millions of gold dollars, United States currency, are about to be coined, of larger size than the little ones now in circulation.

Mr. Renselear Smith, the engineer on the Mineral Point railroad, who met with the unfortunate accident which we announced on Monday last, died of his injuries at an early hour on Tuesday morning, at Warren.

In Madrid, Spain, recently, a daring æronaut, in attempting to ascend in a balloon, hanging by his feet, fell at a hight of half a mile, and was dashed to pieces.

A race is pending between the steamers Alida and Daniel Crew, on the Hudson, for one thousand dollars.

Every policeman in Albany was astonished on Thursday last, by the delivery of a ton of coal at his residence. No explanations were made, but it is suspected that the Prince of Wales adopted this method of surprising the vigilant guardians of the peace.

The Norwegians of Iowa are raising a fund with which to endow a college. $20,000 have been subscribed.

Slavery is very near its end in Delaware. Between 1850 and 1860 the slave population decreased from 2,290 to 1,805.

The public schools of Connecticut educate eighty thousand children at five dollars a year each.

The Syrian relief fund, in New York, now amounts to $18,544,89.

The yellow fever at Honduras has swept off the entire European population.

Concord, Massachusetts, has exactly the same number of inhabitants that it had in 1850.

GARIBALDI.—The Paris Patrie says that as soon as the annexation of Naples and Sicily to Sardinia is proclaimed, Garibaldi will resign his position and authority and assume the title and functions of commander-in-chief of the land and sea forces of southern Italy. He will exclusively occupy himself in preparing for war next spring, and was to make an appeal to all Europe for volunteers.

FAILURE OF FUSION.—The New York Tribune of Oct. 31st, announces the entire failure of fusion in New Jersey. The Douglas men have reinstated their ticket.

In New York the Tribune says it is privately conceded that Lincoln will sweep the state by a majority variously estimated at between FIFTY and SEVENTY-FIVE THOUSAND.

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.—The steamship Europia brings Queenstown dates to the 21st. Weather in England stormy. The Russian embassy has departed from Turin. Victor Emmanuel had not reached Naples. Austrian troops concentrating on the frontiers. The sovereigns met at Warsaw on the 21st. The French bishop and clergy continued boldly and vigorously to defend the papal cause.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.

Counterfeit 5's on the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Hartford are in circulation.

Advices from Havana report the barque Syria of New York as sold to the slave traders.

The Times' Baltimore correspondent says the Wide Awakes were rushed upon while entesing the Front street theatre by a crowd of half-grown men and boys, and scattered in all directions. Only one person, however, was injured with a brick. After entering theatre an attempt was made to organize an antagonistic meeting, but the police interfered and dispersed all but the republicans, who, after a few addresses, also retired.

ALBANY, Nov. 2.

About 9 o'clock this morning a lawyer named John Perry entered the premises kept by John Cranfield, as a porter house, and committed assault on him. Cranfield drew a revolver and shot Perry twice—he cannot survive. The quarrel rose out of a suit for possession of the premises.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.

The Northern Light reports the sloops of war, Lancaster, St. Mary's at Havana, and the steamship Brooklyn and storeship Falworth at Aspinwall 25th.

Advices from Valpraiso are to the 2nd, Callao to the 20th of Oct. The steamer Moses Taylor had touched at Leta. The Vultimatum of the American government had been rejected by Peru so far as the Lizzie Thompson, Georgiana and Saratoga claim; this refusal would compel the American minister to demand his passport.

A frightful accident occurred on the 10th in dry dock at San Corinzo involving the entire loss of the Peruvian frigate Callao formerly the Auperimac and a great loss of life. She was being docked with the crew on board when some stanchions of the dock gave way causing her to pitch over when she rapidly filled with water, a great number of people including men, women and sick in the hospital all perished. All the particulars were not known at date of advices but it was believed the number killed would reach 250, the number wounded with broken heads, arms and legs was very great. The Callao was a 44 gun frigate built at Blackwall, England six years old. The dry dock was damaged and rendered useless.

The revolution in Bolivia was suppressed. Several officers had been shot. Advices from Nicaragua state the news of Walker's capture reached there on the 30th of Sept. causing much rejoicing. Vanderbilt had made the government an offer of transit but was not accepted. The U. S. steamer Naraganset left on the 8th for Panama. A difficulty had arisen at Panama between the United States and British naval forces owing to the arrest of an American officer and an American citizen for refusing to attend to the challenge of a British sentinel who had been stationed in the streets in recent disturbances.

Ohio; Canadian flour firmer; rye flour steady.—Wheat receipts 101,593 bu, market opened a shade better but with large advance in freights, market closed heavy and 1a2c lower, sales 15,000 bu at 1,20½a1,21 Chicago spring.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.

The Charleston Mercury of Oct. 24th, contains an article ridiculing the attempt of the opponents of Lincoln, lead on by the alarm of the Herald, to frighten northern voters from supporting Lincoln on the pretense of southern secession and resistance. It concludes as follows:

"Are the people of New York so timid and so profligate in political sentiment, that an attempt so uncomplimentary to their integrity and intelligence should be gravely attempted? It is indeed an argument against their capacity for self government—an insult to the cardinal principle of republican government, and a horrid slur upon the rural population of the great Empire state. In fact, we are astonished at the audacity, not to speak of the immorality, of the attempt."

The Charleston (S. C.) News also has an article protesting against the attempt of politicians to create a panic, by influencing southern banks to restrictive measures. It says:

"There is no just cause for the pressure in our money market, and which has existed and increased for three or four months. In fact, it is the periodic infliction (only the most aggravated) which the banks have come to impose upon the people of Charleston and the state every summer and autumn.

We protest, also, against the restrictions on commercial operations on account of the political exigency. The crisis cannot, under any circumstances, reach a serious or decisive character before February. It will probably, too, be peaceful and without any jar to commerce. Exports will go out, and imports will come in, under any new phase which affairs may assume. The north, Europe, the south will agree to and insist upon that."

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 30.

A passenger train on the Great Western railroad met with a serious accident on Saturday at Mauvesterre bridge, seven miles west of Jacksonville. It appears that the bridge had taken fire from the sparks of the locomotive of a previous train, which the temporary watchman discovered, and ran back to notify the engineer af the approaching train. The engineer reversed his engine, but could not come to a halt, and the engine and baggage car running upon the burnt bridge, were precipitated into the bottom of the creek. Fortunately the couplings between the baggage and passenger cars gave way, and this saved the lives of hundreds. The regular watchman, who had been on business at Springfield, and whose name was Elijah Montaine, happened to be on the tender at the time, and was instantly killed. The engineer, John Johnson, was slightly injured, and a fireman, John Humes, so badly hurt that slender hopes are entertained of his recovery.

BUFFALO, Oct. 31.

A singular trembling of the earth is reported to have been felt in various parts of Western New York on Friday night. Especially at Oswego and Rochester was the vibration sensibly observed. It was no doubt a slight shock of an earthquake. In some places the shock was so severe that people were frightened out of their homes

BALTIMORE, Nov. 1st—9 P. M.

The Lincolnites are in procession to-night. The Wide-Awakes, numbering about 250, formed in front of the Mayor's office; 300 policemen were detailed to protect them. The hissing and hooting is universal, by men, women and children. They started on their route at half-past seven. Baltimore street was thronged with people waiting for the grand union procession. They were received throughout the route with groans and hisses. No attempt was made to molest them. On Lombard street they passed the Union Minute Men forming, and were greeted with hisses from the whole line. They are now marching through the lower section of the city, escorted by a large police force. They will bring up at the Front Street Theatre, where a mass meeting will be held.

THE GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY TROUBLES.—Baring & Brothers have made the threatened attachment of all the rolling stock—locomotives and cars—of the Grand Trunk (Canada) railway, to secure their debt.—The road has a large business on its hands; the receipts for the middle week of October being $80,000, or an increase of $20,000, and needs more freight cars to do its work. It had contracted with a Portland company for $200,000 worth of such cars, and nearly all were done when the financial embarrassments of the road obliged it to throw up the engagement. Probably the Barings, who have got the elephant on their hands, will have to run the road, and hire or buy these new cars, in order to perform its business.

"A gentleman traveling through Jay county in this state, sometime since, called at a house by the wayside and enquired of an old woman what were the political proclivities of her neighbors. "Well," said she, 'there is a feller named Douglas who will get some votes, Lincoln will get several, and a chap named Breckinridge will get two or three, but a man they call old Abe will knock the socks off of all of them.'"

THE POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY DODGE.—The New Orleans Delta sums up the virtues of Mr. Douglas' "great principle," in the following patent medicine style:

"Mr. Douglas' great principle of squatter sovereignty is a very remarkable principle indeed. In the most mysterious and inconceivable manner it produces the most wonderful and most opposite effects. In the hands of that distinguished practitioner, Dr. Douglas, it can accomplish any desired result. It is particularly good for the south, and especially good for the north. It can expand the area of the free states and extend the institutions of the slave states. It can repress the growth of the north and limit the increase of the south. And, strange to say, it can produce all of these extraordinary effects, not only successively, but concurrently. Who shall say that a principle so remarkable, so little short of miraculous, we may almost venture to state, is not destined to confer on its inventor a fame surpassing the celebrity of Brandreth and exceeding the notoriety of Swaim?"

GOOD GRIT.—A German woman near the residence of Rev. Henry Eliot, in Helin, in this county, whose husband was absent, on Wednesday last saw a huge bear make its way into the hog pen, already cocked and primed for a mess of fresh pork. The frau had no idea of parting with her fat hog, and piching up a sled stake, made for the bear. Mr. Bruin, his mouth watering for the breakfast that was before him, paid but little attention to the woman, but pitched into the porker. A lucky blow from her hands with the stake across the nose of the bear while he was engaged with the hog, laid him out—dead as a herring. Such a woman is worth having. She is worthy to be the wife of a Daniel Boone—or any one else.—Glencoe (Min.) Register.

PRAY FOR DOUGLAS.—The Grand Rapids Eagle is responsible for the following:

At a prayer and conference meeting, held in the red school house, in the town of Walker, Kent county, Michigan, on Sunday evening, the 14th inst., quite a ludicrous scene occurred; the solemnity of the occasion was, by a word, changed into irrepressible laughter. The usual exercises, at such meetings, having quietly progressed for some time, an invitation was given by the leader, to all or any persons present, who had absent or wayward friends, to give their names, that they might be presented to the Throne of Grace, through the prayers of Christians; at which an old gentleman arose from his seat, and in a serious and solemn manner, said that he had a friend who was once very dear to him, but that he had been wandering, like a stray sheep from the fold, anxiously looking for his mother, and that he had traveled the country over in his fruitless search, and was really in need of the counsels and prayers of Christians. "Brethren, pray for Stephen A. Douglas!"

The House that Sam Built.

The following is a capital parody on "The House that Jack Built." As a "Humor of the Campaign," we have seen nothing better:

THE WHITE HOUSE—This is the house that Sam built.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Rev. Daniel Stansbury.

The following preamble and resolutions were adopted at a meeting of the ministerial association for Janesville district.

WHEREAS, The great head of the church has seen fit to remove from among us our beloved brother, the Rev. Daniel Stansbury, late presiding elder of Janesville district, who after a painful and protracted illness fell asleep in the arms of that Savior, he so long and faithfully served—therefore

Resolved, That it is a subject of gratitude and thankfulness to God that he was sustained throughout his afflictions by an unwavering trust in the atoning merits of his dear Savior. As he had lived right, so he died right, blessed be the Lord!

Resolved, That while we bow with christian submission to the will of God as revealed in this providence, we distinctly recognize in it the warning voice of God to us, and will try to heed and obey it.

Resolved, That we tender to his afflicted family the warmest sympathy and christian condolance and assure them that they live in our affections and will be remembered in our prayers.

Resolved, That we are gratified with the christian kindness and sympathy shown to the afflicted family of our brother by the community which has known him so long and so favorably.

Resolved, That the above preamble and resolutions be published in the newspapers of this city and also in the Northwestern Christian Advocate at Chicago.

J. H. JENNE, Sec'y.

Janesville, Oct. 31st, 1860.

BUSINESS BLOCKS.—Three elegant business blocks, built of brick, have been erected in this city during the summer. One on the corner of Main and Milwaukee streets, by Peter Myers; one on the corner of Milwaukee and River streets, by Wm. M. Tallman; and one on Main street, north of Milwaukee street, by J. J. R. Pease. They are all elegant and substantial buildings, and add very much to the appearance of our business streets. The one built by Mr. Myers is especially noteworthy for its size and commanding architectural appearance. A more detailed discription of these improvements will be given hereafter.

WATER WITCH.—The regular monthly meeting of Water Witch Engine Co. No. 2, will be held at their hall on Saturday evening, Nov. 3d, at 7 o'clock. A full attendance of the members is requested.

C. P. KING, Foreman.
A. R. JOHNSON, Clerk.

A MYSTERY SOLVED.—For several days past we have noticed a large quantity of boxes, barrels and kegs arriving at the People's Drug Store and not knowing whether they contained drugs and medicines or something that had to do with the crash of the Union that is predicted by some, we made bold to inquire about them. Curtis told us that it was his full styles of medicines just arriving from New York, and judging from the quantity received he will be able to supply all who may favor him with a call. Although this is a healthy country, every one at times is wanting something in this line as well as paints, oils, glass, toilet articles &c., therefore we advise all to give him a call as he has a good assortment of good articles, and will sell cheap as the cheapest. His trade is constantly increasing, which goes to show that all who try him are satisfied with his way of doing business.

DIVIDE AND CONQUER IS THEIR POLICY.—The republicans of this city understand the game of their opponents. It is to divide and conquer. At all our city elections, the democracy have worked upon this plan, and every time, they have been defeated.—They make a great fuss, and brag immensely of what they are going to do, but the ballot boxes invariably tell the story of their failures. This is because the republicans have stood by their nominations, and have turned a deaf ear to the coaxings, and falsehoods of their opponents. In no other way, than by pursuing our previous policy, can we hope to continue our majority in this city. When we begin to yield, by listening favorably to their invitations to vote for some one of their nominees, we strike a blow at our republican organization. We are persuaded that no true republican will be found scratching his ticket on Tuesday.

☞ The weather has been cold, wet and dreary for some days, but it is only getting rid of the surplus moisture, preparatory to the election, when "old Abe will be elected." Then there will be a reign of another sort, which none will regret.

LINCOLN IN MISSOURI.—John E. Inman, who returned from Pike's Peak a few days since, reports to us a vote on the cars between St. Joseph and Quincy, while in the state of Missouri. The vote stood for LINCOLN 47, Douglas 27, Bell 17, Breckinridge 5. There were only 3 Pike Peakers on the train, 2 of whom were for Douglas. The passengers seemed to be generally residents of that section of the country.

☞ It is a matter of surprise to some that the democracy are so bitter against Mr. Graham, when no cause is assigned which is worthy of a moment's attention. The explanation is that he is a republican who stands by his principles and his party, at all times. The democratic leaders don't like such men. They prefer those who will divide with them every time there is an election.

A MALICIOUS THEFT.—Some body, who might have been in a good deal better business, last night stole the large gilt spoon used as a sign by Weeb & Lee. A dose of tartar emetic from the bowl of the spoon would serve the thief right.

MEETING IN HARMONY.—The republicans of Harmony turned out well Wednesday evening to hear Messrs. C. R. Gibbs and C. G. Gillett. These gentlemen made telling speeches, and the meeting was enthusiastic. The school house, (near John Young's), was filled, and the ladies of the neighborhood were among the auditors. Harmony proposes to give 200 majority for the republican ticket.

To Annie.

Our heavenly Father knows, Annie,
The strength of human ties
Which draw our spirits earthward
And will not let them rise.

He formed the golden chain, Annie,
Which bindeth heart to heart;
And gently, very gently
He takes the links apart.

How many loved ones, Annie,
Have parted from our side,
And crossed the silent river,
With Jesus for their guide.

Waiting upon the shore, Annie,
We fondly linger yet,
Though oft the waves of Jordan
Have almost touched our feet.

And I have sometimes thought, Annie,
'Twas sweet to pass away
Like forest-flowers, which wither,
By slow and sure decay.

The flowers have gone to rest, Annie,
And o'er they wake again,
We may have passed the river,
Beyond the reach of pain.

Surely we need not fear, Annie,
To tread the gloomy vale,
For Christ will be our portion,
When heart and flesh shall fail.

But whether soon, or late, Annie,
When that great change takes place,
He who hath died to save us
Will give us dying grace.

Terrace Hill, Nov., 1860. E. S. KELLOGG.

THE IMPORTANCE OF ONE VOTE.—It often happens that one vote decides elections. Governors have been elected by one vote, and in minor offices one vote has frequently decided it. At the recent election, the republican candidate for clerk of the sessions in Schuylkill county, John B. Reed, was defeated by one vote. In Sullivan county, the republican candidate for commissioner is defeated by one vote.—Bradford (Pa.) Reporter.

SNOW IN SOUTH CAROLINA.—The Pickens (S. C.) Courier furnishes the following:

"A sudden change of the weather occurred on Saturday. It was unusually cool. There was snow in some sections of the district, and the mountains north of us were covered to the depth of four to six inches with it. We have since had killing frosts."

A fellow stopped at the Tremont the morning after Douglas was received and wanted a room. The clerk told him he could put him in a room where Judge Douglas spent the previous evening. The traveler being a Douglas man took a light with pleasure, and marched up stairs to No. 142. In it were four beds, three of them occupied by two persons each, and the fourth bed with one tenant; round about there were spittoons loaded with old quids, stands covered with empty decanters, the bones of sundry ducks, the floor garnished with the remains of wine glasses, and many other evidences of a night's amusement. The occupants of the beds were noisy, and things generally were unprepossessing to a quiet man. Our lodger deliberately walked down stairs, called on the clerk for his bill, and observed that he "hadn't the least objection to sleeping in the same room with Stephen A. Douglas, but this thing of lodging with the whole democratic party was a d—d sight more than he bargained for!"—McGregor Times.

TRINITY CHURCH.

The pews in Trinity Church will be rented for the year ending Sept. 1st, 1861, on Monday, the 5th day of November next, during the day and evening.

This church has undergone thorough repairs, its appearance much improved, and the sittings greatly increased, so that all can be accommodated at a moderate rent.

One of the undersigned, committee, will be in the church on that day from 9 o'clock A. M. until 9 P. M.

Phœnix Insurance Co. of Hartford.

We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Phœnix Insurance Company, published in another column. This we consider one of the most reliable Insurance Companies in the country; and we think no one need have the least hesitancy in effecting an insurance in it. Their exhibit shows conclusive of its reliability. No one owning property should go without an insurance, and to such we recommend them to call on the agent and at once effect an insurance.—Home Journal, Ind.

Continental Insurance Company.

This prosperous corporation, in order to meet its present and growing wants, has just completed the purchase of the desirable property known as No. 102 Broadway and No. 1 Pine street. Possession will be given on or before the 1st of May next, when we learn a new and beautiful structure will at once be erected, suited to the requirements of the Company. No institution of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparallelled prosperity as can this. Commencing with a cash capital of half a million of dollars, it has steadily and rapidly grown, until its available assests now amount to about one million. The officers and directors are known all over the country as among the leading influential business men and capitalists of this city. No better, safer, or stronger Insurance Company exists than the Continental. May it live and grow a thousand years, and—continue to pay fat dividends.—New York Independent.

To the Public.

"Now is the accepted time"—to-morrow may be too late—delays are dangerous.—Have you got a store of goods? Have you a dwelling house? Have you any insurable property? Go at once to Dimock's Agency and have it insured. Do not let the melancholy words "he had no insurance" prove applicable to your case in event of a sweeping fire.

NOTHING LIKE IT TO RESTORE A DOUBTFUL CREDIT.

It is greatly to the credit of any owner or occupant of a building to have placed conspicuously over his door, any of the following leading companies' house plates. The Home of New York. The Phœnix of Hartford. The Continental of New York. The Security of New York. The Merchants of Hartford, or the Northern of London, England. Is your credit at the Banks getting below par, up with one of these plates and you are all right at the Rock County, the Central or at Hoyt's.—Every passer-by will say "there is a sound business man." Tell your New York creditors that you insure your lake freights in the reliable Old Home, and your goods after their arrival in any of these incomparable companies and your orders will at all times be filled, and at the lowest figures. A few more of these ornamental plates left at Dimock's Agency.

I desire to call the attention of the citizens of Janesville and Rock county, more in detail to these well known, reliable and prompt paying
